FACES OF WINTER 2012

Message from CSOPA

Dear Visitors and Honored Guests,

This February marks the tenth anniversary of The Connecticut Society of Portrait Artists (CSOPA). Since 2002, the art world has seen a resurgence in realism and a demand for fine art portraiture rising with that tide. Our membership has grown to more than 100 professional artists from Connecticut and adjoining states, while CSOPA's reputation has spread across the country as a premier 501(c)(3) non-profit arts education organization. The group celebrates these major milestones with an historic portrait convention at UConn Stamford, "Faces of Winter 2012 - A Daniel Greene Festival."

Keep this catalogue! The artists represented were selected from nearly 200 entries. Many will go on to super-stardom, and you can say you knew them when... Are you ready to honor someone you love with a commissioned portrait? This Faces of Winter 2012 catalogue and www.csopa.org serve as excellent resources. In the gallery, be sure to visit our "Wall of Fame" that features rarely-seen works by our distinguished faculty, on loan from private collections.

Our deepest appreciation extends to all our advisors, faculty, participating artists, and member volunteers, who have worked for nearly a year to share with you our passion for fine art portraiture. Event chairs Pat Boes and Joel Spector are to be congratulated for their valiant leadership. We are grateful to our sponsors for their continued support. Please remember to smile for our photographer, Alison Wachstein! We also thank UConn Stamford for once again hosting the event in their superb facilities.

We are proud of our results, and invite you to linger in the gallery, sign our guest book, and vote for your favorite portrait for "The People's Choice Award."

Thank you!
